INTERESTING SUMMARY

The steamship Pacific, Capt. Staples, arrived from San Francisco, via Portland, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. She brought the mails, 45 passengers, and a cargo of goods valued at $22,000. The following summary of news we glean from the latest dispatches to the San Francisco papers:

CALIFORNIA.

Theodore Payne, an old resident of San Francisco, died suddenly on the 9th of Panama fever.

Three buildings were burned at the corner of Sacramento and Drumm streets, S. F., on the 14th. Loss $6000.

During the night of April 8th an ill-looking bear and star flag was hoisted on the fire-men's flag staff, San Jose. So soon as this was discovered this morning, the fire bell was rung, the firemen a sembled, the flag was torn down, and the glorious old stars and stripes run up instead, amid immense cheering.

Messrs. Conness and Laspeyre, members of the California Legislature, indulged themselves the other day in an exhibition, for the entertainment of the members generally, by throwing inkstands at each other, and the latter gentleman flourished a huge bowie-knife. It all grew out of rival inter-ests in a bill and the first warm weather of the season, as is supposed.

Nehemiah R. Forbes, first officer of the steamer Santa Cruz, died recently from injuries received on board that steamer.

A. T. Lambkins was crushed to death, on the 5th April, at the Washoe Mining Company's works near Virginia City, by being caught in the fly-weel of the mill.

The settlers' league at San Jose have had trouble with landholders.

A negro, named John C. Clarkson, for murdering a mulatto girl, named Caroline Parks, is to be hanged at San Francisco, June 4th.

Constine Fox's furniture store, Washingstreet, San Francisco, was burned on 9th. Loss, $20,000; insurance, $15,000.

Gov. Downey has vetoed the San Francisco North Beach Macadamized Road Bill.

Highway robberies and assassinations have become so frequent in and about Nevada of late, that the good people of that town are seriously talking of a vigilance committee. The Transcript advocates it of penly, and says "something must be done, and at once."

The Supreme Court has decided that Horace Smith must be tried in Placer County evacuate on Wednesday of this week.

Yesterday morning an attempt was made ew York Exchange Bank weeks ago, burglass hired the cellar adjoining, and had since excavated 70 feet, to the bank safe. They only succeeded in getting $1000 in alin box in the safe, when they were disturbed in their work and escaped. There w2s fully half a million in funds and securities in the safe. A man named Har-rison Roberts was arrested on suspicion.

Yesterday the steamer Bienville, from New Orleans, was taken under surceillance by the Custom House authorities of New York, for an alleged violation of the revenue law, she not having a proper clearance. Sr. Lours, April 3.

Texas advices state that Col. Ford had been reliably informed from Matamoras that General Ampudia, with a band of Mexicans, was 60 miles off, marching on Brownsville.

Ampudia had despatched expresses with placards and handbills, announcing that Texas rightfully belonged to Mexico; that she could no longer seek support from the Federal Government, and that now was the time to retake the State. Reinforcements in large numbers were rapidly coming to him. Col. Ford had ordered all heavy guns and ordnance stores at Brazos Island to be immediately removed to the scene of anticipa-

The Spanish flug has been hoisted at St. Domingo by the Spanish and French. The Spaniards had previously written to Havana, stating that if Spanish forces were not sent there immediately, they would hoist the Spanish flag—whereupon five Spanish war vessels and 1,000 men sailed from Hayana and took formal possession of San Domingo, aided by a French corvette.

On Saturday last there was a flare-up at the White House between the Delegation from California, who called upon the President to protest against Baker's influence in the appointments. Baker was invited by the President to be present.

Nunes presented the memorial, which was numerously signed, and Simonton presented a protest, each accompanied with remarks. Simonton also read from a paper severely reflecting on Baker. The President pre-served the memorial and protest, but threw Simonton's note in the fire, because he considered the remarks disrespectful to his friend whom he had known for twenty-five years. The delegation withdrew rather abruptly, but at the request of the President called again in the afternoon, when matters were managed more pleasantly. The course of the President is spoken of as somewhat lacksoning Jacksonian.

The special Washington correspondence is filled with reports of a war-like character, which may thus be summed up:

On the night of the 3d of April, a steamer attempted to enter Charleston harbor. She refused to show her colors, and was fired into by the battery on Morris' Island, and put to sea. Sumpter must be abandoned, or relieved at once. Anderson's supplies are completely cut off.

The Southern Commissioners demand the im:nediate surrender of Sumter and Pickens. The preparations for an attack are completed at Sumter and rapidly hurried on at The impression is it will be made at both points in a few days.

The policy of the United States Government now is to hold Pickens at all hazards, and reinforce it if necessary.

The Gulf squadron has been ordered to cooperate with Slemmer.

It is not settled whether Pickens has been already reinforced. It is believed the activity in the Navy is designed for the collection of revenue in the Southern ports on shipboard.

Other accounts say it is for the purpose of preventing the seizure of San Domingo by The Attorney General is now considering the legality of the collection of revenue on men of war. The troops from Texas at New York are again ordered South.

The Virginia Convention adjourned sinc die last night. The final result of the pro-ceedings has not been telegraphed yet.

Several resolutions reported by the major ity of the committee had been adopted. One opposes the formation of geographical parties; another declares the Territories constitute a trust to be administered for the common benefit of the several States, in-stead of the United States; another, that the forts, etc., are to be used to protect the country against foreign foes.

A motion to insert an ordinance of immediate secession was rejected-45 to 89.

Water! Water! No Water!

Ever since the town has been called a town the public have looked to the Springs for a daily supply of pure fresh water. The Springs have consequently been considered public property. In 1858, Governor Douglas state. I to parties who wished to purchase them that they were a public Reserve; and could not be sold. As Governor and Chief Factor of the Hudson Bay Company, he was taken as authority on the matter; and the public generally never for a moment supposed that what was so ready and frank an utterance, should be, in 1861, unreliable. Such appears to be the case, however. Prior to the sale at auction of the Hudson Bay Company's land in the suburbs of the town, it was whispered that a prominent member of the Council and a Chief Factor had become proprietor of the Springs. By many it was doubted. But last evening all doubts were squares have been sold to private individuals, without granting away the only water privilege in the vicinity of the town ! Shall we submit to a water monopoly, a monopoly at variance with the public declarations of the Governor? We unhesitatingly say, No. The public were taught to believe that the Springs were public property; and they would have been so, beyond controversy, had the Executive done its duty. What it has failed to do, the public must do for themselves. Submit to pay water-carriers, and submit to pay toll to a water monopolist? Never. We have an equitable right to the Springs. We have had the public declarafor the use of the town. We have daily VICTORIA NEWS DEPOT. used the Springs for three years and longer on the faith of such declaration. To submit therefore to the scurvy trick of selling the Springs to a private party, would be the very height of pusillanimity. A deputation should wait on the Governor forthwith. Not to learn how he can excuse deriliction of duty-we know that well enough-but to make the Springs public property, freely accessible to the public forever. No half-way measures should be entertained for a moment. The sole ultimatum to offer is: The Springs must be pub-lic Springs. The presumed proprietor's rights must give way to public necessity, just as much so as a man's farm would be opened for a public road; but in this case, there would be no justice in allowing one farthing indemnity on the ground of present or prospective value. The purchaser knew that what he bought was considered a public reserve. Knowing that, he has no equitable right to any indemnity. Suppose the Hudson Bay Company sold our streets, (they claim them too,) would any one ever think of paying the purchaser a dime? It would be folly to ask it. There would then be just as much reason to Thursday, April 25th, 1861, pay an indemnity for the Springs. The Hudson Pay Company claimed and sold them. They claim Beacon Hill, If the Springs are allowed quietly to become private property, so will Beacon Hill Park, in the same manner as the public square on Butter, Lard, Soap, which our office now stands. If indemnity is sought by the purchaser of the Springs let him seek it at the hands of the Company; but let the public insist that the 1 lot of Furniture, Cooking Stove, Springs, to all intents and purposes, shall be public Torings at once and forever.

St. Louis correspondence of March 20:

Major Anderson's loyalty to the Union having been impugned, a single fact may go far to illustrate it, and also his promptitude in dealing with traitors: There is an Irish ruffian who loafs upon the wharves, who has, as an ironical tribute to his extreme ugliness, been dubbed "Handsome Charlie." This vagabond is to Charleston what Billy Mulligan was to New York—as notious a scamp as ever went unhung. The brotherin-law of Charlie was a soldier attached to the garrison at Fort Sunter, and was often sent by Major Anderson, with others, for provisions. These two villains, brothers in crime as well as in "law," had, it seems, been plotting treason in connection with their betters against the Government of the United States. One of their plans was to smuggle files for the purpose of spiking the United States. One of their plans was to smuggle files for the purpose of spiking the guns on Fort Sumter. How they expected to accomplish this rascality is anothe question; but certain it is that files were introduced into the fortress, concealed in loaves of bread. The files and the traitor were both discovered A messenger was disof bread. The files and the traitor were both discovered. A messenger was dispatched to Charleston for a priest. The cause assigned for requiring his presence was the premature confinement, and consequent danger, of a soldier's wife. The real need for him was to shrive a dastardly wretch for the next world, who was atterly unfit to live in this. The brother-in-law of "Handsome Charlie" was shot; a fitting doom for a traitor. " Handsome Char doom for a traitor.

THE "GANGES" OFF CAPE HORN .- We find the following in the San Francisco Bulletin of the 16th inst.:

The ship Revenue, which arrived yester-day from Greenock, had a tough time off Cape Horn. She had just such weather as Sir Francis Drake found there the first time dispelled, by a sentinel posted there to prevent any person from carrying away a single drop of water!

In this state of things, is the whole town to be placed at the mercy of a scheming speculator for every drop of water necessary for domestic uses! Is it not enough that our public landings, our streets, and our squares have been sold to private individuation.

Orders promptly attended to.

Thursday Morning, April 25, 1861.

A DISHONEST TAR .- Sergeant Blake, yesterday, while walking through Government street, observed a sailor belonging to H. M. S. Bacchante, slip into the clothing store of a colored man, named Asbury Buhler, near the corner of Trounce alley, with a suspicious-looking bundle in his hand. The officer climbed over a fence at the rear of Mr. Cochrane's office, on the opposite side of the street, and ensconcing himself in the alley-way, saw the tar hand to Buhler the bundle, and receiving some money in return, quietly depart. Blake immediately crossed the street, and on looking under the counter & Co., and $10,000 in private hands. of the store, found three petty officers' naval jackets, which had doubtless just been sold by the sailor. He subsequently arrested the sailor at a restaurant on Johnson street, HEAVY BLOW.—Yesterday afternoon we were visited by several heavy gusts of wind from the Southwest. The Emily Harris, owing to the high wind, was unable to reach Esquimalt; and the bark N. S. Perkins, at anchor in Esquimalt harbor, but for time-tly aid from the men-of-war, would have HEAVY BLOW .-- Yesterday afternoon we been driven on the rocks. She was kedged out of danger by H. M. sailors. The small crafts in our harbor escaped uninjured. There was a rumor last evening that a sloop had been capsized off Beacon Hill, but we could not trace the report to any authentic source.

TAXING EXTRAORDINARY .. - A tax-payer on Monday applied to the Assessors to appeal against his assessment, on the ground that it was too high. The appeal was refused by the Assessors because the time had expired. Tax-payer then went to the Treasury, paid his tax, and got his receipt the same day. Two days afterwars he receives a notice from the Treasurer appealing against the low valuation of his property. The notice was served by the same party who wrote the receipt. This is what may be called "taxing extraordinary."

HOME AGAIN. - We take p'easure in chronicling the safe return of J. D. Pemberton, Esq., Surveyor General of this Colony, who arrived yesterday on the Pacific, from London. Mr. Pemberton has placed us under obligations for two valuable maps, lithographed in an admirable manner in England. One map represents Victoria and Esquimalt districts; the other is a copy of the official map of Victoria town, and it far surpasses in the style of its execution any map of our town hitherto published.

THE SPRINGS. — Yesterday Mr. J. J. Cochrane, as agent for Mr. Finlayson, owner of the springs, notified the water carriers that they would be allowed no more water from that source. We are aware that a certain party has been endeavoring for some time back to lease this valuable property, and the chances are that he has at last succeeded in his purpose, and that watermen will hereafter be forced te pay a good round sum for their supplies of the aquatic fluid.

NEWSPAPER FAVORS .- We are indebted to Mr. S. Moody, of the Victoria news depot, Government street, for files of California and European papers; to W. F. Herre, of the bookstore, Yates street, for copies of English and American Illustrated newspapers; and to Hibben & Carswell, of Stationer's Hall, for copies of the Sacramento Union, London Illustrated News, Times, and many other valuable journals.

RUNAWAY .- A pair of horses attached to Sayward's lumber wagon, yesterday ran off on Wharf street, and coming in contact with the Hudson Bay Company's truck, broke it rather hadly, and also injured the vehicle they were drawing. They were finally stopped and returned to the lumber yard.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .- A meeting of parties interested in the formation of an Agricultural Association, will be held this evening at the Lyceum, at 8 o'clock. As the object of the meeting is one in which the whole island is interested, it is hoped that there will be a full attendance.

IMPORTATIONS .- The bark N. S. Perkins arrived in Esquimalt harbor yesterday morning, in 13 days from San Francisco, bringing a cargo of general merchandise, valued at $52,814 17. The cargo of the Pacific is valued at about $22,000, including 8 head of cattle and 150 sheep. THE "STEAM DIRECT."-Attorney-General Cary yesterday received a letter from the President of the California Steam Navigation Company, declining to accept the subsidy of $2000 for running a steamer direct to this

SUPREME COURT .- This court owing to the arrival of the California steamer, was not in session yesterday, but will sit this morning at 101 o'clock., when the attendance of jurors will be required. The schooner Carolena, dispatched to Port Townsend for the overland mail, and due yesterday, had not arrived at the hour of our going to press this morning.

ESQUIMALT TOWN .- The total value of property assessed in Esquimalt town is £11,123. Tax, at one per cent., £112 4, 61d.

LADY FRANKLIN .- Lady Jane Franklin left San Francisco on the bark Yankee, April 9th, for Honolulu, Sandwich Islands. She intends visiting China, Australia and India, and then returning via the Isthmus of Suez to England.

no J. A. McCrea will sell by auction this morning, at 11 o'clock, at his salesroom, a quantity of flour, sugar, candles, butter lard, soap, beans, tobacco, etc.

THE "PACIFIC."-This steamer left at half-past five o'clock yesterday afternoon for San Francisco. She carried away about twelve passengers.

TREASURE. - The steamer Pacific yesterday carried away $23,163, for Wells, Fargo

Holloway's Pills are undeniably the finest medicine in the world for Biliousness and Indigestion. In all cases of deranged stomach, determination of blood to the head, the sailor at a restaurant on Johnson street, where he was enjoying a "square meal" off the proceeds of the sale of the jackets, Buhler, we learn, will be summoned to-day as a receiver of stolen goods.

Heavy Blow.—Yesterday afternoon we effected by their use, that their praise is the sailor at a restaurant on Johnson street, stomach, determination of blood to the head, while side headache, liver and stomach complaints, there is no medicine known that will give such immediate relief as these renowned Pills; young and old, rich or poor, patronize them, and so many cures are effected by their use, that their praise is the
